Description

Pirelli 35, built in 2023 and based in Ibiza, an outstanding example of this sporty and elegant model. Powered by twin Mercruiser 350 HP petrol engines with very few hours, it delivers excellent performance and reliability. With only one private owner, never chartered, the boat has been meticulously maintained: fully serviced every year and stored each winter in a covered hall.

This Pirelli 35 comes fully equipped with premium extras for maximum comfort and ease of handling, including bow thruster, joystick control, hard-top, teak flooring, and a 12" Simrad GPS-plotter. Its sleek design combines high performance with refined finishes, making it ideal for both day cruising and entertaining. Whether exploring Ibiza's coastline or setting out on longer trips, the Pirelli 35 guarantees exciting navigation, safety, and enjoyment.

Accommodation

The Pirelli 35 offers a smart and functional layout that balances outdoor leisure with indoor comfort. On deck, the spacious cockpit is designed for socializing and relaxation, with comfortable seating, a protective hard-top, and a large aft sunbed. The teak flooring adds elegance, while wide side decks give safe and easy access to the bow sunpad, creating multiple areas to enjoy the sun.

Below deck, the interior is simple yet practical, providing everything needed for short stays. The open space includes a double bed, sink, and toilet, offering essential comfort for overnight trips or weekend cruising. Though compact, the design ensures efficient use of space and a welcoming atmosphere. Combined with the generous outdoor living areas, the Pirelli 35 is perfectly suited for both day cruising and occasional overnight adventures, making it a versatile choice for Mediterranean boating.
